Inzeal Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

Re: Enhancement of the fees leviable on cattle during the Jatra of Sri Veerabhadraswami Temple at Hartikote, Hiriyur Taluk.

I have the honour to state that the Sri Veerabhadraswamy Temple at Hartikote in Hiriyur Taluk, is a private institution having neither land inams, nor cash grants. It owns one sircar land S.No. 205 with an extent of 19 acres and one gurta and an assessment of Rs 5/-. This land is lying fallow from a long time, but it has got some salt pans in it and from this and the grass grown on the land, a sum of about Rs 80/- is being realised every year. This amount is being utilised by the Vahivatdar of the temple for puja and other seves after paying the assessment due on the land to Government.

a) It is seen from the records that a Cattle Show is being held at the time of the Jatra of the temple in question from a long time. This was being managed formerly by the Vahivatdar Thippaiah himself. But at his request, the management of the Jatra and Cattle Show was taken over by the District Board during 1932-33, and they were conducted under their control till the end of the year 1937-38. While the Jatra and Cattle show were conducted under their control, they levied a fee of one anna per head of cattle that were brought to the Jatra as per rule 7 (a) of the Government Notification No.L.1779/L.B.65-33-3 dated 7-9-1935.

b) The management of the Jatra and Cattle Show in question came he hands of the Inzeal Officers in the year 1938-39 in view of the Government Notification No.L.9007-L.B. 35-37-3 dated 5-5-1938, and si since then, the Cattle show is being managed by the Amildar with assistance of a Cattle-show Committee constituted for the purpose. The [illegible] head of cattle during the Jatra [illegible]. The [illegible] from this source is reported to be as 200/- per annum.

From the records it appears that the temple has no other source of income except the levy of taxes on cattle during the annual Jatra. [illegible] summer, much difficulty is being experienced in supplying drinking water to the people and cattle [illegible]. With a view to mitigate this hardship, the [illegible] villagers have asked for sinking a well (as temporary drinking water tanks have also been on the occasions). Further, the [illegible] well of the people is reported to be badly in need of repairs. But to meet the cost for these repairs and improvements, the temple has no sufficient funds. The Amildar therefore proposes as requested by the [illegible] of the temple, and agreed to by the villagers, to increase the levy of taxes on cattle from one anna to two annas per head of cattle, with a view to get an increased income to the temple.

The Sub Divisional Officer, Chitaldrug agrees with the proposal of the Amildar and recommends for enhancing the levy of fees [illegible] of cattle. No doubt the [illegible] Cattle Show is being managed by the [illegible], but of the Government [illegible], the temple should [illegible] evidence- [illegible].

In these circumstances, I accept the [illegible] may kindly be passed [illegible] taxes on cattle from one anna to two annas per head, [illegible] records only, with the Chitaldrug Sub Division Officer's report [illegible] in this regard, [illegible] kind personal [illegible].
